Please contact (772) 334-3444 for space availability.

All applications will be processed by Jury Committee after the following items are received.

1. Completed application.
2. Jury fee and Space fee paid.
3. List of artwork to be sold.
4. Submit photos digitally. Include front view of booth, artist creating the artwork.

This is a Juried art and craft show with no awards or prizes. Only 100 fine artists and artisans will be selected by the Jury Committee and no more than 10% artisans under the jewelry category will be accepted.

Booth spaces will be strategically assigned to avoid placing artists with similar works in close proximity to one another. Once a space number is assigned, an artist cannot move to another location without permission from show director.

Set-up begins at 6am, Saturday, January 8, 2022. Space fee will be forfeited if participant fails to arrive and fails to contact Chamber staff at (772) 334-3444 explaining absence.

Any artist and their work previously accepted through the Jury committee process will have first-priority on keeping the 2020 exhibit space. The Jury fee will also be waived for previously accepted approved and verified participants applying for the 2022 show if paid by January 31, 2021.

Exhibitors bear the responsibility for all set-up and security need for their exhibits. It is our assumption that participants in the show have liability insurance. All fire safety lanes and show rules will be strictly enforced. Overnight security will be onsite from Saturday 6pm until Sunday 9am.

The History

In 1966, local art patron and chamber of commerce board member, Dr. Richard Penick, wanted to showcase local artists by featuring them in a local art show. With the help of the chamber and local art advocates, they joined together to make it happen. The first Jensen Beach art festival was held at Langford Park in March. The festival was a juried show and awarded cash prizes.

The name of the art festival became the Sunshine State Art & Craft Show in March 1989. The show invited fine crafters to participate displaying their hand-crafted artwork including glass, photography, mixed media, textiles, jewelry and much more, and was held at the Jensen Beach Causeway Park. A highlight of the Sunshine State Art & Craft Show was the flying of the Mount Rushmore American Flag over the event in 1991.

The Sunshine State Art & Craft Show ended in 1994. For the remainder of that decade, and until the Frank A. Wacha, Sr. Bridge construction on the Jensen Beach Causeway was completed in 2006, the Jensen Beach Art League organized several local art shows. In the early 2000's, a South Florida promotion company brought an art show to downtown Jensen Beach and held the show on Ricou Terrace.

When Ronald Rose returned as President CEO of the Jensen Beach Chamber of Commerce in 2006, one of his first objectives was to return art shows to downtown Jensen Beach. He credits artists from the Sebastian Riverfront Fine Art & Music Festival in helping him launch the downtown Jensen Beach art show rebirth. The current Jensen Beach Fine Art & Craft Show premiered in January 2007 and officially kicks-off the region's art and craft show season.

Guidelines

You are invited to participate in the 16th Annual Jensen Beach Fine Art & Craft Show. The show kicks-off the area's art show season and is considered one of the area's most authentic art and craft shows. The show is open to all artists and artisans who comply with the show guidelines.

All works must be original and must be attributed solely to the on site artist. Artwork from molds, kits, including other commercial methods, or resale items are not eligible to participate in the show.

For uniformity, all tents must be white. Booth signage is required and must be professional. The name of the artist must be clearly displayed.

Set-up will begin Saturday, January 8, 2022 at 6am. All works must be for sale. Booth space measurement must be 10' x 10'. All work must be contained in the assigned space unless previous arrangements are made with show official. Each artist must provide an appropriate and secured display for outdoor exhibition. No vehicles are allowed near booth spaces, or in show area during show hours.

No loud generators are allowed. No amplified music is permitted. Nails or screws placed in the streets or parking lots are strictly prohibited. Tent weights are mandatory.

Each artist is responsible for collecting 6.5% Florida Sales Tax and remit tax to the Florida Department of Revenue.

An application is a commitment to attend the show and remain for the entire event. Exhibitors leaving the show early will forfeit an invitation to participate in future shows unless excused by a show official.

Displays will be viewed by show officials, who shall have sole discretion to require the removal of any work which violates show guidelines or may be deemed inappropriate, including removal of an exhibitor for inappropriate behavior.

All exhibitors assigned a space on Jensen Beach Boulevard agree to have their exhibit space dismantled and removed no later than 7pm in order to reopen the street to traffic. Failure to meet this requirement will result in forfeiture of Boulevard space at future shows.

For information on local RV parks, or lodging, please call Jensen Beach Chamber of Commerce (772) 334-3444.
