

Why getting involved is so important

Ambassador Committee is one of the first steps you can take to become more involved. The primary function of an Ambassador is member involvement. Ambassadors are a team of knowledgeable volunteers that share with new and potential members the benefits of Chamber membership. Ambassadors help fellow members engage in the Chamber programs, events, and money-saving opportunities as well as aid Chamber staff at our various networking and ribbon cutting events.

Government Affairs Committee advocate in matters related to local and state government. Our overall objective is to continually improve the business climate in Jensen Beach and the vicinity by partnering with local political representatives, facilitating communications, and raising awareness in order to stay in front of issues that impact the business community. The committee members monitor issues that may affect business and encourage dialogue with elected officials, plus reviews and develops public policy positions that are "pro-business".

Education Committee works to bring about a cooperative interchange of goals, information, and activities between local businesses and schools. Initiatives: Teachers & Staff Welcome Back Appreciation Breakfast, Adopt-A-Class Program, school supply drives, Teacher and Student of the Month, and Junior Achievement programs. The annual fundraising event for school art and music programs is the Art, Music & Benefit Auction. The Committee meets the last Tuesday of each month, August through April.

Community Engagement Committee assists the local tourism industry to reach full potential. Committee members work to enhance the image, community pride, and quality of life of Jensen Beach through beautification projects and special events that showcase business and community. Community members promote the benefits of volunteerism and engagement. Chamber produced events: Jammin' Jensen, Jensen Beach Fine Art & Craft Show, St. Patrick's Day Parade, Taste of Jensen, and the Jensen Beach Pineapple Festival.

The Entrepreneurship Foundation, Inc. is a specialized 501c3 tax exempt nonprofit educational foundation supports the Chamber's Education Committee to provide the resources needed to promote and encourage a culture of entrepreneurialism in the community and schools.

History Museum of Jensen Beach, Inc. is a 501c3 tax exempt nonprofit organization located in the Chamber's Visitors Information & Business Referral Center. The museum collects and displays historic Jensen Beach artifacts, photos, and documents.

Building Fundraising Committee seeks donations to help fund the construction of a new Chamber headquarters building that will house the Chamber's administrative offices, Visitor Information & Business Referral Center, The History Museum of Jensen Beach, and The Entrepreneurship Foundation.
